4th Grade News - State Fair

After spending months researching and writing about our United States of America, the fourth graders finally got to display what they learned about a specific state that they had researched, at the Fourth Grade State Fair. Students created floats representing their states. Some featured facts about their states; others presented places to visit or historical events that occurred in their states. Parents enjoyed the students' presentations and efforts. Mazel tov to the fourth graders who ended their States unit brilliantly!

5th Grade News

By Nechama Shira Richman and Pessy Shenker

Last week on Monday and Tuesday, classes A & B had art. We made a really amazing project with a bunch of colors with black mountains. On Monday, we had a shmitah farmer come to school and speak to us about how he started to keep shmitah. On Thursday, we went to Sunset Park and had a really fun time there. On Friday, we had Fun Friday and had fun answering the questions from the question box. We had Upwards too. Last week was super busy in 5th grade.

We are all special and unique! The Nursery Yeladim have observed the things that make us similar and different. With great teamwork they were able to recognize each other's facial features and put together 15 puzzles, one for each student! They had a blast tracing each other's bodies, cutting them out, and putting their similar features on their poster. Everyone was able to figure out who made each self portrait!

The Pre Nursery Stay & Play is excited to begin our final author study of the year, featuring Mo Willems! The yeladim are having a blast listening to the books and helping to read them using picture clues! We've played games featuring some of our favorite characters, designed puppet theaters, and engaged in dramatic play and storytelling! Plus, we're enjoying the outdoors with our friends!

This week was a big week in Kindergarten! On Sunday, we had our Kindergarten celebration. The yeladim all did a fantastic job performing! We had fun practicing our alef bet skills while playing Hebrew bananagrams!

The Kindergarteners went on a field trip to The Grove in Glenview. We saw what life was like during pioneer times, and we also took a nature walk through the woods!
